

VELMA W. GARRETT

1920-2009

FORT WORTH: Velma W. Garrett, 89, died Saturday, June 27, 2009 in Fort Worth.

Velma was a very special person who had many talents her favorite being gardening. Flowers were her passion as well as vegetables. The love she had for flowers was only overshadowed by the love she had for her family.

Velma enlisted in the Army Air Corp the Monday after Pearl Harbor was bombed. She served our country until 1946. Most of all, her charm, wit, and her generosity will be missed by all whose lives she touched.

Velma was preceded in death by her husband of 35 years, Thomas W. Garrett and her son Thomas A. Garrett

Survivors: Grandchildren, Amanda Garrett, Caitlyn Garrett, James Garrett; sisters, Lois Norris and Betty Pfeffer; brothers, Sonny Allen and Gary Allen; great-grandchildren, Angel, Marion and H. W., Jr.

Graveside service: 11 a.m. Wednesday in Bridgeport Cemetery West.

*Greenwood Funeral Home
3100 White Settlement Rd. Ft.Worth*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, July 2, 2009

