

DARRELL L. (TINY) HALE

1952-2009

RUNAWAY BAY: Darrell L. "Tiny" Hale, 57, died on Wednesday, Sept. 9, 2009 in Runaway Bay.

Darrell was born on March 23, 1952, the son of Tom William and Wilma Leone (Brooks) Hale in Borger. He married Joan Sander on September 7, 1974 in Garden City, Kansas. He was a truck driver for Shale Tank Truck in Jacksboro and a former chief of the Runaway Bay Volunteer Fire Department. During his life he worked many years in Corrections in Kansas and Texas. He also served as a Police Officer in Newton, Kansas. His passions included hunting, fishing and "driving a big rig".

Darrell was preceded in death by his mother, Wilma Brooks Hale; his grandparents, Herbert and Marcille Hale, Marvin and Juanita Brooks.

Survivors include his wife of 35 years: Joan Hale of Runaway Bay; sons: Shane Hale of Rosharon, Texas, Shaun Hale and wife Dawn of Springtown
Grandchildren: Joshua and Christopher Hale, Misten Kittrell, Felicity, Cheyanne and Autumn Hale, Devon Miller, Hunter and Conner Hale; father: Tom Hale and Shirley of Carlsbad, New Mexico; sisters: Toni and Michelle Hale; several nieces and nephews; other relatives and a host of friends.

Memorials: American Cancer Society.

Funeral was held at 2 p.m. Saturday. Burial: East Bridgeport Cemetery.

Rev. Jim Va Rite and Rob Hawkins officiated. Pallbearers were Charlie Grill, James Stroud, Dan Matzinger, Warren Wade, Randy Adams, Greg Ayers, Cody Ayers, and Frank Van Laeys. Honorary pallbearers: Ricardo "MD" Davila, Shawn Berry, Roger Parrish, Shane Hale, and Shaun Hale.

*Hawkins Funeral Home
1909 9th St. • Bridgeport, Tx.*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, September 17, 2009