

JERRY “TATER” GEE

Jerry “Tater” Gee, 57, of Chico, died January 10, 2006 in Wichita Falls. He was born November 28, 1948 in Wichita Falls to Orcle and Lenora Jackson Gee.

Mr. Gee was the owner of D.J.’s Welding. He was a member of Crafton Baptist Church serving as church deacon. He married Jean Maddux on July 22, 1972 in Ryan, Oklahoma. He was preceded in death by his parents; sister, Sharon Skidmore; and 3 nephews.

Survivors include his wife of 33 years, Jean Gee of Chico; daughter, Kathy Fisher of Wichita Falls; sisters, Helen Isabell and husband Jim of Chico, Sylvia Meador and husband Jim of Springtown, JoAnn Tucker and husband Nobie of Chico, Sandra Davis and husband Keith of Weatherford, and Pam Cole and husband Tony of Holiday; and brother, Leon Gee and wife Paulette of Chico.

Funeral service was January 14 at the Crafton Baptist Church with Rev. Tom Merritt, Rev. David McEntire and Rev. Kenneth Wood officiating. Interment was at the Crafton Cemetery. Pallbearers were Jackie Souther, Jr., Jeff Meador, Leon Gee, Jr., Jerry Gee, Jr., Carl Davis and Rickie Fisher. Honorary pallbearers were Kent Davis, Eli Cole, Erick Cole, Adam Cole and David Davis. The family request in lieu of flowers memorials may be made to any Kidney Foundation.

*Hawkins Funeral Home
1909 9th St. • Bridgeport, Texas*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, January 19, 2006